

Fall Lay Servant Training – Advanced Course

SATURDAY, September 25, 2021
(9:00 AM - 5:00 PM) via Zoom

Participants Book – Lay Pastoral Care Giving by Timothy M. Farabaugh

This is an advanced class focused on congregational laity supporting their pastor in the caregiving role. You will learn to use pastoral tools of prayer, Scripture, and Eucharist while enhancing your personal gifts in caring, compassion and listening skills. This course will offer insights into the life span and dynamics of contemporary life to help church leaders reach out with God's love and care to others. This class will be led by Gerald Steele and Rev. Brian Mangan.

Please know that all classes require a total of ten (10) hours of participation. We have allotted 2 hrs for you to read and comprehend the book "Lay Pastoral Care Giving" by Tim Farabaugh. The class time on Saturday, 09/25/21 for the "Lay Pastoral Care Giving," will begin at 9 AM and concludes at 3 PM. From 3PM to 5PM will be a second course on "Basic instructions on funerals and grief issues," by Michael Long. (No book is needed for this course)

You must participate in both sessions to receive credit for the Certified Lay Servant course.
